

Stella Octangula
(compound of two tetrahedra)

(small version out of one part)

The first tetrahedron is yellow
the second is blue
Fold the lines between the faces
of the same tetrahedron backwards.
Fold the other lines forwards

A

Stella Octangula
(compound of two tetrahedra)

(Large version made out of three pieces)

The first tetrahedron is yellow
the second is blue
Fold the lines between the faces
of the same tetrahedron backwards.
Fold the other lines forwards

B

C

B